NOTES

Officers and others who may notice errors or omissions in the List are invited to communicate direct with

The Editor of the Navy List,
Ministry of Defence (N.P. 2),
Old Admiralty Building,
Whitehall,
London, S.W.1,

mentioning the ship and page in question. Communications should be marked " On Her Majesty's Service," and need not be stamped.

The Navy List is published four times a year—in the Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter.

The Spring edition is the full edition, on sale to the public, and is published in March. The other editions are abridged and contain only the alphabetical list of officers of the R.N., R.M. etc., the list of ships and air squadrons, etc., with their key officers and a few other pages, but the Autumn edition also contains the seniority lists of R.N., R.M., Q.A.R.N.N.S., W.R.N.S. and Commonwealth officers. The Summer, Autumn and Winter editions are published in June, September and December respectively.

The Navy List of Retired and Emergency List Officers is published in November every other year, the next edition being 1969.

The rates of pay, regulations, &c., are contained in a special sale publication entitled "Appendix to the Navy List," which is published annually in August.

Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies, or courtesy titles should immediately notify the Editor in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the Navy List and official records.

The degrees shown after Officers' names in the Navy List are not necessarily a complete list of those held, but, generally speaking, are confined to degrees of an honorary nature conferred specially upon an Officer, and those which are so related to the professional duties of an Officer as to give some indication of his professional qualifications.

This edition of the Navy List is corrected to include those promotions, appointments, etc., promulgated on or before 31st October, 1967 as becoming effective on or before 29th February, 1968.

The above list is issued for the information of Captains of Her Majesty's Ships with reference to the provisions of Article 1252 of the Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, under which they are authorised to ascertain whether British Merchant Ships (including Fishing Vessels) flying the Blue Ensign of Her Majesty's Fleet are legally entitled to do so.

2. The detailed regulations issued by the Ministry of Defence (Navy Department) and the Board of Trade lay down the following conditions relative to the wearing of the Blue Ensign:—

The Blue Ensign is not to be worn if—

(a) from any circumstances, the Officer to whom the Warrant was issued is not in command of the ship;

(b) the number of persons qualifying as "reservists" (see Note below), in addition to the Commanding Officer, is less than the following requirement:—

(i) in a ship other than a fishing vessel, one reservist officer,

(ii) in a fishing vessel, four reservists, unless it can be shown by the endorsements on the Agreement or by entries in the official log, that the reduction in the number has been caused by death, sickness, desertion, or joining a British Man of War, or by some unavoidable casualty.

3. Commodores and Captains on the active or retired lists of the Royal Naval Reserve or Commonwealth Naval Reserves qualify for the privilege in their own right, without the requirement of a number of reservists.

4. Article 1252 of Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions prescribes the action to be taken by the Captain of one of Her Majesty's Ships if a merchant ship is found to be wearing the Blue Ensign without the Warrant or otherwise not complying with the foregoing regulations.

Note.—"Reservists" can include Officers and men of the Royal Naval Reserve or of a Commonwealth Naval Reserve, time-expired ratings who have completed 20 years' service in the Royal Naval Reserve, members of the Royal Naval Special Reserve, Officers on the retired or emergency lists of the Royal Navy or of a Commonwealth Navy, men belonging to the Royal Fleet Reserve, Royal Naval Pensioners and Royal Marine Pensioners.

THE OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION

The primary object of the Officers' Association is to relieve distress among all those who have at any time held a Commission in Her Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces (including the Women's Services and Nursing Services) and among their widows and dependants.

Although a separate organisation with its own Royal Charter, Council and Committees, the Association also bears the title of " The Officers' Benevolent Department of the British Legion".

The Relief Branch deals with all cases requiring financial help or assistance in education and training of children. The Homes Branch assists in particular the elderly ex-officers and widows who can no longer look after themselves and require accommodation in a Home for the elderly or a Nursing Home. The Association maintains " Huntly," its own Home for elderly male ex-officers at Bishopsteignton, South Devon, and also a small bungalow estate at Leavesden, near Watford, for disabled ex-officers and their families.

It has a Claims and Pensions Branch which helps ex-officers or their widows with Disability Pension and other Claims and a Resettlement and Employment Department, which assists ex-officers to resettle in civilian life and to find employment.

It also runs a men's clothing store at its London Headquarters which issues clothing to ex-officers in necessitous circumstances and where gifts of suitable clothing are always welcome.

The Officers' Association is largely supported by a share of the Poppy Day collection and of other donations to the British Legion and also by the King George's Fund for Sailors, the Army Benevolent Fund and the R.A.F. Benevolent Fund.

It works in close co-operation with the British Legion, the three Services Benevolent Funds and with Corps and Regimental Associations and all Ex-Service Organisations. It has special working arrangements with the Officers' Families Fund, the Housing Association for Officers' Families and the Ex-Service War Disabled Help Department of the Joint Committee of the Order of St. John and the British Red Cross Society.

It has Honorary Representatives throughout the United Kingdom, in Commonwealth countries, and in many foreign countries where there are sizeable British communities, and these Representatives investigate cases and recommend appropriate action to the Association's Headquarters.

The Association's Headquarters is at 28, Belgrave Square, London, S.W.1. (Tel: Belgravia 8112—S.T.D. 01–235) and it has a Branch in Scotland with offices at 23, Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh 3. (Tel: Caledonian 6684—S.T.D. 031–CAL–6684) and at 1, Fitzroy Place, Glasgow C.3. (Tel: Central 8141—S.T.D. 041–CEN–8141). LLOYD'S PATRIOTIC FUND

LLOYD'S BUILDING, 5, LIME STREET, LONDON, E.C.3

With the exception of the families of Naval officers, only very few cases arising out of the 1914–18 war and the second world war can be considered. The fund also nominates children of such officers and men to Army and Navy schools.

The balance of the Mansion House South African War Fund is also administered for the benefit of men disabled by wounds, disease or sickness in that war, discharged "medically unfit" in consequence, and unable to work on account of their disability.

Applications and enquiries should be addressed to the Secretary, who will be very pleased to receive subscriptions on behalf of this fund. Cheques and Postal Orders should be crossed "National Provincial Bank Ltd.".

MARINE SOCIETY

CLARK'S PLACE, BISHOPSGATE, LONDON, E.C.2

The purpose of this charity is to help poor boys of good character to go to sea, either by making grants towards their pre-sea training, their outfit of uniform on going to sea, or by giving advice when needed on the most suitable steps for a boy to take with the object of ultimately going to sea in the Royal or Merchant Navies. Apart from local education authorities the Marine Society is by far the largest benefactor on these lines. Nearly 300 boys were helped to make the sea their career during the year 1961.

(a) commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, and men serving, or having served, in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines;
(b) officers and men of the Royal Naval Reserve; and
(c) other seafaring men and men drowned on lifeboat service.

Digitized by Google

Applications for admission should be made to the Director of Greenwich Hospital at the address given below as soon as boys reach the age of 9½ and before the age of 10½. Applications on behalf of over-age boys can be considered only where there are exceptionally strong compassionate circumstances, e.g., death of a parent. After educational and medical examinations, entries to the School are made in September, January and May, and places are allotted as they become available after the boy reaches the age of 11½.

No fees are charged for boarding or clothing. The current fee for tuition is £120 a year. Parents and guardians are responsible for maintenance during the School holidays, for fares to and from School, and for reasonable pocket money. Serving personnel may be eligible for Navy Education Allowance, details of which can be obtained from Supply Officers. Parents who are leaving the Service (or who have left it) are entitled to apply to their Local Education Authority for assistance with tuition fees.

The School is an independent civilian School with two grammar school streams and three secondary modern streams offering a full secondary school curriculum on the basis that all boys will complete a five-year course and during the Summer term of their fifth year will take the appropriate nationally recognised first School Leaving Examination, i.e. G.C.E. ' O ' level for boys in the grammar school streams and C.S.E. for boys in the secondary modern streams.

Some boys then leave to start their careers, but for boys nominated on the basis that they are likely to profit by them, the following further courses are available:—

(a) for boys of requisite ability the standard VIth form course of two (or in some cases three) years leading to G.C.E. ' A ' level examination, success in which qualifies boys academically for entries to the Universities and Professions and for Cadetships in the Armed Forces;

or

(b) for boys from all streams, a one-year course affording the opportunity to aim at certain G.C.E. ' O ' level subjects in which they will at any rate be able to profit by, and participate fully in, the academic courses involved.

Despite the School's strong naval traditions, boys are quite free to aim at the career of their choice, and the fullest careers guidance is given to all.
